Join Hillel's Global Leadership Society and Hillel's President and CEO, Eric D. Fingerhut, for an intimate evening of art and conversation about Hillel's critical efforts to strengthen Jewish life around the world.

By invitation only. Limited space.

To RSVP, please contact Alex Rabhan at arabhan@hillel.org

We will preview Sotheby's Israeli and International Art Auction, including Israeli art from early 20th century modernists to the most sought-after contemporary artists.

Hillel International's Global Leadership Society is a platform for for current and prospective volunteers, leaders and supporters of Jewish life on campus. Hillel International raises funds to actuate Hillel's bold and ambitious vision – to inspire every Jewish student to make an enduring commitment to Jewish life, learning and Israel. Each year, 400,000 Jewish students attend a college or university. As the largest Jewish campus organization in the world, Hillel International enables its 550 Hillels around the world to engage and steward diverse, pluralistic Jewish communities in innovative opportunities; and retain the top talent in the Jewish communal world.
